

ABOUT US

Alex J. Hart and Jacqueline Guay started this company with the passion and dream of seeing the lighter and brighter side of love, life and politics. We at Max Pax Productions are committed to making the world a more joyous place by seeking to instill the virtues of playful goofiness, purity of heart, and the innocence of an inquisitive child.

Dum Dum Dodo has all the above qualities that our planet so desperately needs in these troubled times. He is the Birdbrain Superhero who rescues us with his zany antics and buffoonery for laughter's sake. We bring you outrageous comical misadventures and hilarious birdbrain babblings from the heart, mind, and soul of a selfless non-judgmental Dodo bird.

We hope you've enjoyed Dum Dum Dodo's web world. So please come back and visit him soon for updates. If you have any questions or comments, we'd love to hear from you.
